Calaveras Superior Court's New Court Executive Officer

Calaveras County Superior Court is proud to announce that Monica L. Alemán has been selected as the Court's next Court Executive Officer (CEO). Ms. Alemán will succeed current CEO Margaret Smith, who has served the Courts for the past 28+ years. Ms. Smith will be greatly missed by everyone at the Calaveras County Superior Court and the entire community that has benefited from her service.

Ms. Alemán holds a bachelor's degree in Homeland Security with a specialization in Emergency Management and an emphasis in Human Resources. She has over a decade of public service experience with Stanislaus County, serving in leadership roles such as Chief of Revenue Recovery, Animal Services Business Manager, COVID-19 Call Center Manager, and BHRS Human Resources Director. In addition, she brings 20 years of financial management experience in banking, showcasing her expertise in both public and private sectors.

As a resident of Oakdale, Ms. Alemán deeply values the connection and sense of community found in small towns. Her education, experience, and dedication to public service align seamlessly with the court's mission to provide equal access to justice for all while enhancing the public's trust and confidence in the judicial system. Ms. Alemán is committed to applying her skills and passion to help the court achieve its goals and serve the community effectively.

Ms. Aleman will begin as CEO on December 16, 2024.
