The Superior Court of California, County of Calaveras, is pleased to announce the appointment of Ms. Siobhan Curley as Managing Self-Help Family Law Facilitator. Ms. Curley joined the Court on July 25, 2026, and was formally sworn in on August 19, 2026.

Ms. Curley brings family law experience and a strong commitment to public service and access to justice. Prior to joining the Court, she practiced family law in Northern California. Her interest in family law began with the San Diego Volunteer Lawyer Program's Domestic Violence Restraining Order Clinic. Her public-interest experience also includes work with the California Innocence Project, Community Law Project, and Amnesty International.

"Legal professionals are entrusted with a unique skill set, and with that comes a responsibility to help others. Family law provides an opportunity to help people through some of the most difficult transitions in their lives. Providing clear and conscientious guidance during those times can help make that transition more manageable." — Siobhan Curley

Ms. Curley earned a Bachelor of Science in Anthropology, with a minor in Political Science, from Santa Clara University and her Juris Doctor from California Western School of Law. She has been an active member of the State Bar of California since October 2020. Her public service has been recognized by the San Diego Volunteer Lawyer Program and California Western School of Law's Pro Bono Honors Society.

As Managing Self-Help Family Law Facilitator, Ms. Curley oversees the Court's Family Law Facilitator and Self-Help programs while providing services to self-represented litigants. Her responsibilities include program administration, staff supervision, legal and procedural support, community outreach, and collaboration with judicial officers, court leadership, and justice and community partners.

Raised near Lake Tahoe in the Sierra Nevada Mountains, Ms. Curley enjoys the outdoors and is a certified yoga instructor who completed her teacher training in India. The Court is pleased to welcome Ms. Curley to this leadership role and looks forward to her contributions to access to justice in Calaveras County.
